

Usui Shiki Ryoho Grandmaster Phyllis Lei Furumoto

November 2, 3, & 4, 2018
New York City

Phyllis Lei Furumoto, Grandmaster of Usui Shiki Ryoho, and successor to Hawayo Takata, will visit New York City for three days in the fall of 2018.

Friday, November 2nd, 2018 (9 am to 5:30 pm EDT)

Open to Reiki students in the lineage of John Harvey Gray

Theme: Connecting with our spiritual and initiating lineages

(Must disclose initiating Master Instructor in John Gray's lineage.)

Saturday, November 3rd, 2018 (9 am to 5:30 pm EDT)

Open to all Reiki Masters of any lineage

Theme: Teaching Reiki as a Spiritual Practice

(Must provide Master credentials.)

Sunday, November 4th, 2018 (9 am to 5:30 pm EDT)

Open to all Reiki practitioners of all levels and lineages.

Theme: Becoming a world citizen through Reiki practice

(Must provide Reiki level 1 training information.)

Each day of Phyllis' visit is designed so that different audiences have time to interact with her and to meet each other.

Event Registration

To register online for any of the three days, go to Eventbrite.com and search for "Phyllis Furumoto" in New York City

Online Conference Participation

Web participants may register to join via the Zoom Video Conferencing service. Online conference registration is limited to ensure maximum interaction with our virtual attendees.

Location

One Spirit Learning Alliance
247 West 36th Street, 6th Floor
New York, NY 10018

Questions

E-mail ReikiCentersofAmerica@gmail.com

Sponsored by
REIKI CENTERS OF AMERICA
& Brian Brunius